Q&A

Zurich CVT Features

Flexible Premiums

Zurich CVT is a flexible premium universal life policy. You can customize premium payments based on certain policy minimums, policy guarantee coverage periods, and maximum IRS limits.

No-Lapse Death Benefit Protection

The minimum premium shown in your policy guarantees your life insurance coverage for 20 years.*

Continuation of Insurance Beyond Age 100

Added automatically in states where this rider is approved, the Extended Maturity Benefit (policy form S-9351) allows you to maintain life insurance benefits for as long as you live. Provided the policy is in force, you may elect to extend the base CVT policy beyond age 100 at no cost. If elected, the face amount at age 100 becomes the death benefit beyond age 100.

Access to Policy Values

Zurich CVT is permanent life insurance protection. Cash values earn a guaranteed minimum annual interest rate of 3%. Current interest rates declared by the company may be higher.

The net cash surrender value is available beginning in the second policy year for policy loans or withdrawals. The regular loan interest rate is 5%. Preferred loans, in excess of premiums paid, have a loan interest rate of only 3% per year. The policy cash values that secure a loan will be credited with a guaranteed interest rate of 3%. Only one withdrawal per year is allowed. The minimum withdrawal amount is $500.00.

Optional Rider Benefits

Optional coverage on your Zurich CVT policy include:

- Waiver of the Policy Monthly Deductions (policy form S-9341), for total disability, after a 6-month retroactive waiting period;
- Dependent Children Coverage (policy form S-9314);
- Other Insured Rider level death benefits available for up to 5 family members and 2 business partners; and
- Term Income Rider (policy form S-9352) that provides your beneficiary with a specified monthly income for 10, 15, or 20 years.

Will my Zurich CVT minimum premiums increase during the first twenty years?

No. The minimum premium is a guaranteed premium that cannot be changed by the insurance company. The policy guarantees that as long as the minimum premiums are paid when due, the policy will not lapse during the first 20 policy years.

Can I continue my Zurich CVT policies beyond the 20-year minimum premium guarantee period without having to requalify medically?

Yes. Additional premiums may be paid beyond the 20th policy year to continue coverage with no additional medical requirements. The cost for continued coverage will depend on the then current policy cash value, cost of insurance, and interest rate credited, plus other fixed policy charges.
